

Angus Adult Protection Committee

Roles and Responsibilities and Interagency Working in the Protection of Adults

Target audience:

Staff working with adults, their carers, and their families, directly or indirectly, and involved in providing services to them alongside other professionals.

Anyone who has attended Angus Council Social Work and Health council officer training need not apply for this training event.

Aims and objectives:

- To explore with others, their role and responsibilities in relation to the support and protection of adults*
- To develop an understanding of the legislative framework for the support and protection of adults*
- To consider what is harmful to adults and how adults in need of support and protection can be identified*
- To consider how to respond to concerns about an adult at risk of harm*
- To develop knowledge of what facilitates good interagency working with adults, their carers, and their families*
